RE: United States v. Adrian Nunez, 22 Cr 636 (DLC)

Dear Judge Cote:

I represent Mr. Nunez in the above-captioned matter. I write with no objection from the government to adjourn the deadline to either file a motion to withdraw Mr. Nunez' plea or indicate to the Court that we will not be filing such a motion. I ask that the Court adjourn the deadline for approximately one month. The government has no objection to this request for an adjournment.

I request the adjournment for several reasons: Mr. Nunez's biopsychosocial status is quite complicated and intertwined in the charged crime; the review of the materials I received from prior counsel has taken considerably more time than I had anticipated; I only recently received the full copy of the discovery from the government; and finally, a number of personal and professional matters have frustrated my work on this case.

I request, without objection from the government, that the Court adjourn the deadline in this case for one month. I thank the Court for its attention to and consideration of this matter.

Granted - The defendant's submission is due 3/28/25.
